M3 WAKE RESEARCH

A Lilly Study

Research Study for Adults Who Are Overweight

Evaluating an investigational oral pill Orforglipron

Taken by mouth once a day — no injections

This Phase 3 study is for adults who are overweight and may be at risk for future weight-related health problems.

— Qualified Participants May Recieve —

- Study-related medication and exams at no cost
- Compensation for time and travel
- Transportation assistance can be provided

No insurance necessary

You may be a good fit if you:

- Are 18 or older
- Are overweight
- Have prediabetes or borderline high blood pressure or cholesterol
- Have tried diet and exercise to lose weight

This study may not be a fit if you:

- Have diabetes or have been diagnosed with obesity
- Recently used weight-loss medication
- Have had weight-loss surgery
- Have certain other medical conditions or take medications that may affect participation

Other eligibility requirements apply.

The study team will review your health history and screening results.

Anticipated length of study: 156 weeks

Anticipated enrollment: Fall 2026

Discuss timing with your healthcare provider.

Interested in learning more?

Call us to connect with our team:

(949) 329-2969

Or scan the QR code to complete the online interest form